GREEN PARTY NOMINATES FEDERAL CANDIDATE FOR LEEDS-GRENVILLE- THOUSAND ISLANDS AND RIDEAU LAKES

BROCKVILLE- The Leeds-Grenville Electoral District Association (EDA) has nominated local business owner Lorraine Rekmans to serve as the Green Party Candidate in the 2015 federal election.

Rekmans, who has worked as a journalist, and as an executive director for non-profits. Rekmans and her husband own a family business in Kemptville. She is also the volunteer Chair for the Grenville Centre for Social Studies. Rekmans is currently active in the Green Party and serves as the Indigenous Affairs Critic on the shadow cabinet. Rekmans is also a two-time federal candidate and ran for the Green Party in Algoma-Manitoulin-Kapuskasing in 2008 and 2011 federal elections.

“She represents the type of candidate that the Green Party is looking for and she is well prepared to run an issues driven campaign,” said Greg Philliban, Chief Executive Officer of the Leeds Grenville EDA.

“She is intelligent, articulate and thoughtful and will be able to represent the Green Party platform with assurance and confidence,” said Jane Hart, financial agent for the EDA.

Rekmans works with her husband and her two sons at their family business in Kemptville. She is a proud grandmother.
